

Research Project Development & Proposal Writing Services

Your collaborative research and innovation partners

Our Service

At MODUS, we take a leading role in the development of a proposal and provide a central point of coordination to the entire process. Our expert proposal writers take a strategic approach based on our extensive experience and large network of leading European researchers. We know what makes a proposal succeed and understand how to meet the call topic specific criteria and how to conform to all the rules for participation; meaning we can construct a balanced consortium capable of delivering the promised results.

Developing a proposal submission can be both enormously challenging and rewarding: what we bring to the process is a critical eye, sense of urgency and commitment to do the hard and detailed planning work that underpins every successful submission.

What we will do for you

Planning and Coordination:

- Establishing development timelines, schedule, resources and budget.
- Setting up shared repository and communication tools.
- Providing central point of coordination for the entire proposal development process
- Administration of submission process on the funding and tenders portal

Concept development:

- Clarifying the scientific and technical objectives.
- Concept assessment and feasibility

Consortium building:

- GAP Analysis
- Access to extensive researcher network
- Partner search and initial contacts

Cost

We are proud of the fact that proposals supported by MODUS have a greater chance of being accepted than the average. That is why we choose a risk sharing success fee-based model with a small upfront commitment fee for our services.
